

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL CLOSED

Bigstaff Property, Including Residence and Several Acres of Ground Changes Hands.

The handsome and massive residence and property of Mrs. J. M. Bigstaff, situated in this city, has been sold to Mr. C. K. Olham, of Lexington, who will, at once, build streets through the land and sell same for building lots. This property includes several acres of land which will be divided into about 44 building lots, which will be graded where needed and made the most desirable in this city. This property is located in the very best section of Mt. Sterling and we are indeed fortunate in having a man like Mr. Oldham fathering the movement to build up this end of our city. He has been one of Lexington's leading real estate men for a number of years and has done much to build up that city and we are confident will make a huge success out of this property and that many beautiful and valuable houses will be erected on the lots. The price paid was in the neighborhood of $20,000.

"WETS" LOSE IN SHELBY

County Judge Gilbert Refuses to Call Election Except for the Entire County.

Saturday afternoon at four o'clock Attorney Clarence G. Barrickman, representing the saloon interests of the city, filed in the County Court a petition purporting to be signed by 295 voters in the city of Shelbyville asking that a "local option (?) election be held in the three Shelbyville precincts on September 28, the same day that the election was asked for by the "drys" over the entire county. Judge Gilbert set the hearing on the "wets" petition for Monday morning. In ordering the paper to record Judge Gilbert stated that he knew of no law under which they could expect to have such an election called.

When Court convened Monday morning Judge Gilbert took up the petition for the entire county. Attorney Barrickman objected to the calling of the election, but was overruled and the election ordered to be held on September 28, the date asked for by the petitioners. The Court also directed that a special registration be held in three Shelbyville on Tuesday, Sept. 15, for the purpose of enabling voters not now registered to register. The Sheriff was directed to take such steps as provided by law for the opening of the polls in the various precincts, etc.

The "wets" petition was then taken up. On motion of Judge O'Rear, representing the "drys", it was refused. Attorney Barrickman then prayed for an appeal. This too, under the law, was denied him, and the matter was left in identically the same shape as if the "wets" had never filed their petition.

The action of the "wets" was evidently done in the hope that they might "muddy the water" or delay the election. Had they succeeded in their attempt to secure an appeal it might have delayed the holding of an election on Sept. 28. This is about all they can hope for, as the county is certain to go "dry" by an overwhelming majority whenever the opportunity is given the people to vote on it.—The Shelby News.

GREAT FAIR COMES TO CLOSE

Every Day Proved a Big Day—Attendance Not As Large As In Previous Years.

The Montgomery County Fair opened last Tuesday under the most auspicious circumstances, and the banner week of the organization's history was had. Every available stall at the grounds and almost as many more in nearby stables were utilized to take care of the stock that were entered in the various rings and races last week. Nearly every big stable in the State was represented, including Allie Jones, I. H. Thurman, Edward Berry, John Smiley, McCray Bros., Collins & Son, William Jones, Mat Cohen, W. G. Shropshire, Walter Rice, Press Ray, H. B. Harp and others. Tuesday was mule day and the greatest showing that has perhaps been seen in Kentucky in many a day competed for the various premiums. Seibert's Band, of Louisville, the same that played for the State Fair last year, with a very charming singer, furnished the best music that the local fair has ever had. In addition to the fair company's program a splendid carnival was on the grounds and offered the cleanest shows ever seen here with a similar aggregation. Hippodrome races were interspersed in the daily program and excited intense interest. The display in the Floral Hall was the largest and best that Miss Georgia Sledd, the superintendent, has handled. Following we give a list of the winners in the different rings and races:

Horse mule, under one year—John Marr, 1st; W. F. Saunders, 2nd.

Horse mule, under two years—S. S. Ralls, 1st and 2nd.

Horse mule, under three years—Harrison Woods, 1st; S. S. Ralls, 2nd.

Horse mule, three years and over—Harrison Woods, 1st and 2nd.

Mare mule, under one year old—John Marr, 1st; Frank Collins, 2nd.

Mare mule, under two years—J. H. Woods, 1st and 2nd.

Mare mule, under three years—Harrison Woods, 1st; S. S. Ralls, 2nd.

Mare mule, three years and over—C. C. Clark, 1st; Harrison Woods, 2nd.

Horse mule, any age—Harrison Woods, 1st; S. S. Ralls, 2nd.

Mare mule, any age—C. C. Clark, 1st; no second offered.

GRAY RUSSELL CUT BY NEGRO

Was in Serious Condition, But is Now Thought to be Getting Along Nicely.

Mr. Gray Russell, aged 25 years, son of Mrs. Lucy Russell, of this city, and one of Mt. Sterling's most popular young men, was dangerously stabbed by a negro named Jasper Smith at the Fair Grounds last Thursday night.

Young Russell was in company with Corbett Lyons, of this city, and was entering the grounds on his way to the Midway when a negro ran into him. Russell called him down and the three negroes, John Allen, Tom Davis and Jasper Smith replied insultingly and following him up, later attacked him. Russell put up a game fight, knocking one of the negroes down but the odds were too great against him and had it not been for a showman coming to his rescue it is likely he would have been murdered on the spot. As it was he was dangerously stabbed in the breast and his right lung was penetrated, besides receiving several minor wounds. It was feared for several days Mr. Russell could not live but he is now getting along nicely and unless complications set in his recovery seems certain.

Two of the negroes, John Allen and Tom Davis were placed under arrest while Jasper Smith, the negro that did the stabbing, made good his escape and has not yet been apprehended, although the police believe him to be in Cincinnati and are making every effort to land him behind the bars. The Allen negro was released on a $300 bond, with H. M. Ringo as surety while the other negro remains in jail.

The assault was a very cowardly one as the negro stepped behind him and stabbed him while he was defending himself from the attack of the other negroes. It is said there were several other negroes with the three who did the fighting.

On the night of the cutting excitement ran high and had the Smith negro been caught a lynching would likely resulted. All three of the negroes should be punished to the fullest extent of the law for their cowardly assault. Jasper Smith has been in trouble before and is a frequent user of a knife and is known as a bad negro.

HEAVY RAIN FALL.

Rains have been falling in this section for the past several days and on Sunday afternoon it was so heavy much damage was done, caused mostly by creeks being flooded out of their bounds. In some sections of the county the rain was accompanied by a heavy hail, which, together with a terrific wind, did much damage to tobacco and corn. Many valuable trees were uprooted and other property damaged.

DANCE AT OIL SPRINGS FRIDAY NIGHT

There will be a dance given at Oil Springs Friday night, July 31st. The music will be furnished by a Lexington orchestra.

Oil Springs has been very popular this year and large crowds have been spending the summer there. Under the able management of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huls, this resort is rapidly forging to the front as a summer resort.

O'DOHERTY IS FOR BECKHAM

Great Louisville Leader says Stain Should be Wiped From State.

Judge Matt O'Doherty, the distinguished Louisville leader and churchman in the course of a recent interview said: "I cannot bring myself to believe for an instant that self-respecting Democrats—men who have regard for ordinary decency in public affairs, or in party organization or discipline, will let the opportunity pass unimproved which the coming primary affords, to set the seal of their condemnation on the perfidy by which Gov. Beckham was deprived of the Senatorship six years ago, after having been regularly nominated for the office by the party he had so faithfully served.

"It will I am confident, never be said of the great body of Kentucky Democrats that they condoned fraud or treachery by neglecting the opportunity of setting the seal of their condemnation upon it when the opportunity offered. In no other way, than by the nomination of Gov. Beckham, is it possible to effectually wipe out the stain on the fair name of Kentucky, which the conspiracy by which his defeat was accomplished placed upon it. Party integrity, party organization, party discipline and public decency alike demand Gov. Beckham's nomination and election. Thus, and thus only, can the wrong done to him and to the Democratic party of Kentucky in his person be righted.

"Gov. Beckham deserves well of his fellow-citizens. He was called to the chair of the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth when the State was in a condition bordering upon anarchy, violence and bloodshed were averted by the cool sense, admirable judgment and indomitable courage which he, although then a very young man, brought to the discharge of his duties as Governor. He merits the honor he is now seeking. He has a double claim to it—first, because he is eminently fitted for the office; second, because, as all men know, by the most unblushing treachery he was deprived of the office six years ago, after having won by overwhelming vote his party's nomination. His nomination now is due alike to him and the Democratic party. Its honor and his right are alike involved. Perfidy should never have permanent triumph. He will, I believe, distance all his competitors in Louisville, and there can be no doubt that he will win by a large majority in the State."

Card of Thanks.

The ladies of the Baptist church who served dinner at the Fair grounds each day last week desire to thank the Monarch Milling Co., for the Crown Flour furnished by them; the Woolfolk Coffee Co., of Lexington, for coffee and the Heekin Spice Co., of Cincinnati, who kindly gave an ample supply of Deer Head tea. The corn used was the famous Elephant brand of canned corn and donated by the Power Grocery Co., of Paris, Ky. Prewitt & Howell and H. G. Enoch, who loaned the dishes, and all the local grocers and other friends for their donations.

MR. BECKHAM SURE WINNER

Says Cincinnati Enquirer—Camden and Fields Also Have Cinch, it says.

Sunday's issue of the great Cincinnati Enquirer concedes Mr. Beckham's nomination for the long term, predicts Mr. Camden will easily win the short term and Mr. Fields to be renominated for Congress. Its estimates are based on the most accurate estimates obtainable and in the course of its article it says:

"The postcard canvass conducted by the writer during the last two weeks indicates the nomination of former Governor J. C. W. Beckham for the full term and Senator Johnson N. Camden for the unexpired term as United States Senator by the Democrats of Kentucky at the primary election to be held next Saturday.

During the week Mr. Beckham gave out a statement in which he said:

"The right is won, and the task before the Democratic party is to prepare in a systematic manner for the November election and make certain that Kentucky will do her part in keeping a Democratic Congress behind President Wilson."

Looking at the race by congressional districts the estimates make it appear that Beckham will carry the First, Third, Fourth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh, leaving the Second and Fifth to Stanley, and the Sixth to McCreary, if the opinion as to his carrying Kenton and Campbell counties is to prevail.

General Percy Haly claims that Louisville and Jefferson county, which comprise the Fifth District will be in the Beckham column. In that event Stanley, it seems, will carry only his home district.

Harry F. Howell, Sheriff,

For over 40 years we have been fighting the battles of good government, wherewith and morality; also we have been fighting the open saloon and have done all in our power to rid the people of this great curse, and now it is too late in life for us to backtrack on this great question, therefore it is impossible for us to vote for Mr. Stanley for United States Senator, who seems to be backed up by the most powerful and worst influences that can be brought to bear in a great State like Kentucky. We have tried Mr. Beckham and have found him as true as steel and we are not afraid to try him again. He is the man to rebuke the power and influence of the whiskey trust.—Mayfield Messenger.

MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS IN HARDIN

Hardin county is in the midst of a great educational revival. A week's campaign, with speaking in every school house has been waged, and Moonlight Schools are to be opened soon, fifty teachers having volunteered to teach them following an eloquent address and appeal by Mr. Harry A. Sommers. The Hardin County Board of Education has the distinction of being the first in the State to offer a prize to the teacher who teaches the largest number of illiterates. The Woman's Club of Elizabethtown offers the same amount for the same purpose, and is the first Woman's Club in the State to offer such a prize. Supt. Payne, of Hardin county, the Hardin County Board of Education, Hardin County Public School Teachers, the Woman's Club, of Elizabethtown, and Col. Harry A. Sommers and The Elizabethtown News are all banded together to wipe illiteracy out of Hardin! It has not a chance to exist in that county.

We graduate in the school of experience, and before we get ten miles away we discover that we didn't learn half enough.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR CONGRESS

We are authorized to announce

HON. W. J. FIELDS

of Carter county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Ninth District, subject to the State Primary of August 1st.

We are authorized to announce

HON. J. P. HANEY

of Morgan county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress
from the Ninth District, subject to the State Primary of August 1st.

Let the Election be Clean.

We are delighted to see Pure Election Leagues being formed in Woodford and other counties of the state with a view of having a clean, honest election next Saturday and would be glad to see such an organization in every county in the commonwealth.
While by no means free from irregularities, we are sure the reader will agree with us that conditions in Montgomery county have greatly improved in the past decade and right here we want to say, at the risk of being classified as an idealist or a dreamer, that the time is rapidly approaching when vote buying will be practically unknown.
Decent people everywhere are recognizing the viciousness of the practice and in our last state primary at least one candidate for a county office, with opposition, won without spending a dollar. We do not say the other candidates spent anything, but we know one who did not.

Every voter should endeavor to ascertain whether any candidate is using money to corrupt the morally weak and then vote against any candidate found so doing. Vote buying strikes at the very foundation of our institutions and makes our boasted freedom but a mockery.

In our humble judgment the sentiment for clean elections is growing so rapidly that the present generation will see the day when the vote buyer will be driven from our midst as though he were a leper.

Justice has Triumphed.

The race is won! Victory is a certainty and the stain of perfidy will be wiped from Kentucky by a decisive majority next Saturday! That Mr. Beckham is the choice of the rank and file of the Democrats of the state, one must be neither a prophet nor a son of a prophet to foresee. The only thing remaining is for those who admire character, courage and capability to go to the polls and make lefaat an impossibility.

Over-confidence alone can make the contest even interesting. If a full vote is polled, he will receive more votes than both of his opponents.

His brilliant attainments, rare experience in public affairs, superb poise and lofty attributes of heart and mind admirably equip him for this high station.

"Tis no wonder he is the people's choice!

In November thousands of independent Republicans and Progressives will flock to him and when he finally comes into his own, the state will have a Senator who will compare favorably with any in the nation.

If you love justice and want to cast a vote for which you will never have cause to be ashamed, vote for the winner, the Hon. J.
C. W. Beckham!

Under the heading "The subjoined matter is furnished for publication by the A. O. Stanley campaign headquarters in Louisville." Mr. Stanley each evening "toots his own horn," and modestly acknowledges through the columns of the Times that he is the greatest Kentuckian to date.

Mr. Voter, do not misunderstand the issue. A vote for Mr.
A. O. Stanley is a vote for his Louisville Campaign Manager, Mr. Lawrence Reichert, of the Frank Fehr Brewing Company and the things for which he stands.

In his recent speech at Benton, Ky., even Mr. Stanley felt obliged to admit: "I have not questioned Mr. Beckham's honesty, his integrity or his patriotism."

A vote for Beckham is a vote for decency. A vote for Stanley is a vote for deception, egotism and demagogism.

QUALIFICATION OF VOTER IS DEFINED

"I am forced to hold that a voter cannot be denied his right to participate in a primary because he threatens to bolt the nominee if his man does not win," said Assistant Attorney General Logan in reply to E. B.
Coomes, of Bardstown, who asked if a voter states that he will not support the nominee of his party in the November election in the event the candidate of his choice is not nominated, whether the election officers may deny him the right to vote in the primary.

Mr. Logan said the law determined the question by what the voter has done in the past and not what he may do in the future, and says the voter must be a member of the political party for whose candidate he offers to vote, and if the voter cast his vote against the nominees of his party at the last general election he is disqualified to vote in the primary. Mr. Logan said that a man who did not intend to support the nominee ought not to vote in the primary, but under the law he could not be prevented.

tion, on West Spring street.

BEN R. TURNER'S WINNINGS AT FAIR

Mr. Ben R. Turner won the following prizes with his Rose Comb Rhode Island Red chickens at the Montgomery County Fair last week: 1st and 2nd cock; 1st and 2nd hen; 1st and 2nd cockerel; 1st and 2nd pullet; 1st and 2nd pen; sweepstakes for best old pen of cock and 4 hens of any variety.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

Be sure you bring your certificate of registration with you when you go to vote Saturday, as the election laws require same to be shown to the officers. This, of course, applies only in the city, no registration being required in the county.

LETTER FROM JESSE HAINLINE

Adams House, Boston, Mass., July 22, 1914—Editor Mt. Sterling Advocate—

If it were possible, I would like to write to everyone of my friends, young and old, my wonderful experiences which I have been having with my good and beloved friend, the Rev. Dr.
Leonard W. Snyder, of Philadelphia, Pa., known as "The Boy's Minister Throughout the United States and Canada."

But to reach all, I have decided to write a general letter to my home papers, asking the Editors kindly to publish the same.

On June 14, I left Mt. Sterling, Ky., to meet Dr. Snyder at headquarters, where I arrived the following day, stopping on the way at Washington, D. C., for a few hours, where I saw the White House, the Congressional Library, the Capitol building of the United States and also the Treasury building.

Upon arrival at Philadelphia I found Dr. Snyder waiting for me, and went immediately to his home, where a most cordial and kind reception was given me by his home friends, Mr. and Mrs.
H. T. Ziegler.

I remained in Philadelphia from June 15th until June 25th.
During that time I saw many places of historic interest, as Independence Hall, where the Declaration of Independence was signed, the home of Betsy Ross, who made the first American flag, and the Liberty Bell, which rang upon Independence Day. I visited the Navy Yard at Philadelphia and saw the battleship "Kentucky." Then I made several trips on the Delaware river, sailing one day to Wilmington, Del. Also, I made many trips through the subway, on the street cars which run under the ground. It certainly is some city and some life, and something to see for a boy. On several occasions I visited Willow Grove and Fairmont Park, popular parks in and around Philadelphia, which are very beautiful, especially Willow Grove, which has several amusements, as scenic railways, mill streams, merry-go-rounds, and reproductions of gold and coal mines where the visitor obtains a knowledge of the work by miners in the mines.

Philadelphia is a great commercial city, with a population of 1,740,000 inhabitants. On June 25th, I left Philadelphia with Dr. Snyder for New York City. We stopped at the Herald Square Hotel in the heart of the city. I shall never forget my rides through the streets of the Metropolis of our Nation. Constant hustle and bustle. We remained only two days in New York, but while there I visited the Woolworth building and took the elevator to the 58th floor. Then I pushed into the tower, stepped outside to the veranda, and the view from the top of the Woolworth tower is the greatest, if not the most wonderful, in the whole world.

Looking down upon the thousands of great structures, the wonderful bridges that span the East River, including the old Brooklyn bridge, the beautiful parks, the great steamers berthed at the piers along the river—one realizes the grandeur and vastness of the Metropolis. The serried peaks made by the giant buildings, towers, church steeples, all seemed to contend with each other for the distinction of "highest and greatest." But the Woolworth building rises above them all as a giant tree among the smaller trees in the forest.

The Woolworth building reaches a height of 792 feet and 1 inch above the sidewalk.

Then I visited Coney Island, (New York's most popular summer resort). While on my way to Coney Island, the steamer passed Liberty Island, with the beautiful Statue of Liberty which was given by the French people to our Nation.

Had lots of fun at Coney Island, no end to amusements and entertainments, chute the chutes, scenic railways and thousands of bathers. It surely is some place.

On Saturday, June 27th, at 11 o'clock in the morning, we sailed on S. S. "Florizel" of the Red Cross Line, for St. Johns, Newfoundland. We arrived a little late at the pier, owing to a street car conductor in Brooklyn who had carried us too far, not knowing where the pier of the Red Cross line was located. So our steamer had left her dock as we arrived, but the General Manager located us at once and gave signal to stop, and we were boarded on a tug, which took us to the steamer, about 500 feet away, and like two experienced sailors we climbed the rope ladder hanging on the outside of our steamer, and after we climbed over the railing we were at once taken to our state room. It was a great experience and I enjoyed it very much.

After we were settled in our state room we began to unpack our things, and soon afterward went to the promenade deck and had a fine rest and view in our steamer chairs.

Life on board of a steamer is very restful, but less enjoyable when the wind blows and the steamer begins pitching and rolling, which proved to be our case most of the way.

But Dr. Snyder, who understands life at sea, as well as on land, made me very comfortable, put me in a steamer chair and wrapped me in heavy blankets, so I could breathe the fresh air all the time, sleep most of the time and eat part of the time, and at the same time being rocked in the cradle of the deep.
I did not care for much to eat, however, because I was a little 'under the weather,' of course—you understand! Ha! Ha!— You know!

Dr. Snyder said morning prayer and delivered an address on Sunday, while at sea, and arranged several musical entertainments for the passengers; and although our journey was stormy, cloudy and foggy, Dr.
Snyder kept all the passengers in the best of spirits.

On June 29th, we arrived at Halifax and remained there until the following day, when our steamer pushed for St. Johns, where we arrived on Thursday, July 2nd. As we approached the Newfoundland coast, it began to get cooler and cooler, and it was very cold upon arrival at St.
Johns, so we asked for a fire in our room.

The city of St. Johns has a population of 30,000 inhabitants.
The main industry is fish. One day we took a drive to Cabot Tower, where we beheld the sea, the sky, the hills, the river and city—a most beautiful and picturesque view. Any one who ever goes to St. Johns must surely visit Cabot Tower, from which point you can see all over the city and vicinity, and have a beautiful view of land and sea.
Nearby the tower is found the cable house, where the Atlantic Cable goes into the sea and connects with Europe.

On the evening of July 3rd the passengers of S. S. "Florizel" arranged a supper at St. Johns at midnight to celebrate the Fourth of July, on which occasion we both were present, Dr.
Snyder being the speaker of the evening. On the 4th day of July, at noon, we attended a luncheon given in honor of Dr.
Mott, the International Missionary, on which occasion we were introduced to the Governor of Newfoundland, the Colonial Secretary, and also the Episcopal Bishop of the colony.

Newfoundland is a British colony and has its own government, and it is independent of Canada.

The city of St. Johns is built along the St. Johns River, it has several banks; splendid public schools, fine churches, and the people are very kind and hospitable.

On Saturday evening, July 4th at 5 o'clock, we boarded the S. S.
"Menewana," of the Black Diamond Steamship Co., for Sydney, Nova Scotia, where we arrived on the morning of July 6th.

We remained at Sydney, N. S. from Monday, July 6th, until Thursday, July 9th, when we left for Rockingham, Nova Scotia—a little resort on Bedford Bay, about five miles from the city of Halifax. I had a splendid time there, playing ball, tennis, going fishing and swimming most every day. While there I made several visits to Halifax, which is the largest city in the Maritime Provinces, with a population of 60,000 people.

On Thursday, July 16th, we left for Yarmouth, N. S., and the following day boarded the S. S.
"Prince George" for Boston, where we are now. I will tell you all about Boston in my next letter. We will remain here for about a week and then spend another week in Philadelphia, when we will travel westward to Niagara Falls and points along the Great Lakes. I am feeling fine. I am sleeping with blankets over me every night. I trust all my friends are well, and comfortable, too. Will write soon again.

Thanking the Editor for his space, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

Jesse R. Hainline.

OLD SCHOOL BOOKS TAKEN IN EXCHANGE

Thousands of dollars will be saved parents of school children by a ruling made by Barksdale Hamlet, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, regarding the exchange of school books under the State Text-Book adoption.
Superintendent Hamlett holds that under the Act of 1914 all publishers will be required to take up and exchange books in any condition provided they are of the same grade. The ruling was made to correct an impression that has gone out that such books offered in exchange would have to be in good condition.
On this subject the law says:

"Said dealers shall exchange new books for old ones of the same grade, displaced by said adoption, at the exchange price herein provided for, during the first year of the life of each and every contract made under the provisions of this act. All bids and proposals shall set out clearly and specifically an exchange price at which such book or books shall be furnished to pupils and patrons who may have old books of the same subject, and which may be exchanged for new books, and the exchange price shall in all cases be subject to the terms of the contract made between the State and any publisher bidding."

Superintendent Hamlett's interpretation of the law is that the "good condition" clause applies only to such books as are held by dealers on their shelves which, of course, must be taken up by the contractors at the original net price. Regarding this the law says:

"Such new books as are held in Kentucky now or at any future adoption, by purchase by dealers, and in good condition, shall be taken in exchange at the original net price by successful bidders from such dealers as hold in stock such books."

SOCIAL EVENTS

"The Fair Dance," given by the Sterling Dancing Club at Trimble's hall, in this city Thursday night was a huge success and a most enjoyable affair. A large number of visitors were present. Music was furnished by Seibert's orchestra, of Louisville.

Misses Nettie Reed Wyatt, of Kentucky and Fannie May Norton, of Florence shared honors last evening at a hospitality given them by Miss Annie Lou Brock at the residence of Mrs. J. O. Camp. The invitations were responded to without exception, and Misses Brock, Wyatt and Norton, all daintily robed in white received in the living room that was beautiful in its dress of crepe ribbon, palms and ferns. In the dining room the table made the keynote of color with its cut glass bowls of flowers, red and white, mints in cut glass compots and tapers burning in red tipped candelabra. In one corner little Misses Dimple Brock and Mary Kate Inman served iced punch from a table decorated with the graceful grape vine and fruit.

The lawn was beautifully illuminated with electricity. Here tables for cards were placed, but an arrangement of settees under the trees proved too attractive and progressive tete tates proved a feature. The hostess was assisted by Misses Hay and Nell Brock in serving delicious ices.—New Decatur Daily.

Sleet-Moss.

The following beautiful marriage announcements have been issued:

Mrs. Minnie Sleet announces the marriage of her daughter Mary Catharyne to Mr. Taylor Sears Moss on Saturday, the 25th of July nineteen hundred and fourteen. At Home after August the first Lexington, Ky.

The announcement came as quite a surprise as the happy secret had been kept well. The couple left for Cincinnati, accompanied by the bride's mother, Mrs. Minnie Sleet, her brothers, Messrs. Albert and Lyman Sleet, and Miss Anna Moss, of Mt. Sterling, who were present for the ceremony, which was quietly performed in the parlor of the new Gibson House. The couple left after dinner for a trip and on their return will make their home in Lexington. The bride is the only daughter of the home. She is charming and much admired and is much loved by a host of devoted friends who are extending congratulations and best wishes for all joy and happiness. Mr. Moss formerly of Mt. Sterling, is now making Lexington his home, holding the position as branch manager of the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau. He is highly esteemed and popular both in social and business life.

The above announcement appearing in the Lexington Herald will be of much interest here where Mr. Moss has so many friends.

BANK STOCK SOLD

At auction Saturday 20 shares of stock in the Mt. Sterling National Bank, belonging to the estate of B. F. Cockrell was sold. M. O. Cockrell purchased 15 shares and Mr. John Judy 5 shares. The prices paid ranged from $270 to $299 per share.

HOTEL McKEE

INCORPORATED

The McKee Hotel Co., of Mt. Sterling, was incorporated at Frankfort recently with a capital of $50,000. The incorporators are Judge H. Clay McKee, W. R. McKee and N. T. McKee.

The company proposes to build a magnificent $100,000 hotel and business block on the northwest corner of Bank and West Locust streets, six stories in height, including basement, with seventy-two rooms, all with running water and many with showers, sample rooms, assembly hall, committee headquarters, and all modern features of a twentieth century building. The ground for the building has already been secured and it is a positive fact the hotel will be built. The H. Clay McKee & Sons' Co. has already begun the sale of stock in the project and have issued an attractive circular describing the proposition in detail.

WILL HAVE ELECTION IN SCOTT COUNTY

County Judge Ward, of Scott county, having refused to call the election for 1326 voters of the county the "dry" carried their case to the Circuit Court and Judge R. L. Stout, at a special term of the Court Saturday ordered the County Judge to call said election. The petition filed by the "wets" asking for an election on the same day in the city of Georgetown was dismissed by the Court.

The County Judge had refused to call the election, being of the opinion that since an election on the same subject had been held in Scott county a little more than a year ago, he was unable to call another election until two years had expired. Under the order of the Circuit Court, however, he set the election for September 28th.

Miss Allie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. James, of near Means, this county, was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital at Lexington Monday where she will undergo a surgical operation. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery. She was accompanied by her parents and Mr. Chas. Robison.

MOTION PICTURE EXHIBIT

The Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission is preparing to send its exhibits of motion pictures to a number of Central Kentucky counties this summer. The Commission has a complete equipment for producing moving pictures, and will be shown in the open air or in conveniently located churches. Local arrangements in various counties will be made by county health officers and county superintendents of schools. Moving pictures and slides, accompanied by brief lectures, will give the average layman all the essential facts he ought to know about consumption. The pictures are shown free.

ALWAYS ON THE JOB

A great deal of the success of the Montgomery County Fair held last week was due to the energy of the competent Secretary, W. Hoffman Wood. Mr. Wood, by hard work managed to have the best horse, mule and jack rings ever shown here and the writer heard several men say some of the rings were the best they had ever seen anywhere. The poultry and floral hall exhibits were also very good. The racing, considering the size of the purses offered was rather good. Mr. Wood and the Fair Board are to be congratulated upon the general excellence of the Fair.

JOB PRINTING OUR SPECIALTY

INCENTIVE TO CATTLE GROWING

Cheaper meat, though much to be desired, is not in sight. A dispatch from Kansas City says the number of cattle so far marketed there this year is 150,000 short of the receipts during the same period last year. The receipts are the smallest for the same period in twenty years.

Kansas City is one of the greatest cattle markets of the country and the decrease in receipts is attributed to the drouth last summer in the Southwest. The prevailing prices for cattle are the highest ever known for the month of July. The prediction is made that if August prices are as much higher than the July level as has been customary in recent years "next month will see prime beefs bringing $11 a hundred pounds in Kansas City."

This augurs poorly for any reduction in the price of beefsteak. It indicates that the cattle supply in the West, which has been diminishing for some years, is still on the down grade. It also emphasizes the cattle-raising industry as a profitable line of agricultural effort. Cattle may be grown anywhere in the United States to some profit. They can be grown in the South to greater profit than elsewhere, because of the mild climate and the consequent shortness of the feeding season.

The big ranches of the West formerly supplied the country with an abundance of cattle when taken in connection with the production in other parts of the United States. But the big ranches are disappearing. They are being cut in small farms and the small farmer cannot raise cattle on the extended scale which was possible in the days of the "ranch kings" with their great herds scattered over thousands of acres of grazing lands. The shortage in the cattle supply is not confined to this country, but is world wide. The most sanguine of consumers can see no prospect of cheap beef.

The opportunity for the expansion of the cattle-growing business is here and it is all that any prospective cattle grower could wish. The farmers of the South, especially, should take advantage of it.

PRIZE OFFER TO TEACHERS

To the Kentucky teacher who writes the best article or story on "My Moonlight School," the Kentucky Society of Colonial Dames will give the sum of $15.00.

The conditions are as follows:

The story must be absolutely true in every detail. It must be written by the teacher who taught such school.

It must give date of opening, length of term, enrollment, age of youngest and oldest pupil and results.

It must be sent to the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, Frankfort, on or before November 1st, 1914.

The judges will be: Dr. J. G. Crabbe, President H. H. Cherry, Hon. Barksdale Hamlett, Supt. Ella Lewis, Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart.

Insanity is on the increase in the United States. An expert says that the number of patients in hospitals for the insane has nearly trebled in the last 49 years. Oklahoma makes the best showing of any American state, only 67 in every 10,000 are insane. The worst showing is made in Massachusetts, which is 473.4 insane persons for each 100,000. And Al Jennings expects to be elected Governor of Oklahoma.

If you are afraid to knock at dame fortune's door for fear her undesirable and cross-eyed daughter, misfortune, will open it, you will never find a fortune.

WILL STANLEY BOLT?

The question is asked if it is possible for Mr. Stanley, in view of his frenzied attack upon Mr. Beckham, to vote for Mr. Beckham in November after the latter is made the Democratic nominee for United States Senator at the primary to be held three weeks from Saturday.

The matter is of small importance. After the primary Mr. Stanley will disappear from public notice and what course he will take will have no possible effect upon the State campaign. It is a fact, however, that if Mr. Stanley believes that even a fraction of what he says about Mr. Beckham is true, he would be grossly derelict if he supported such a man after the primary or before.

Mr. Stanley may bolt after the primary, or he may not. It matters nothing. Likewise, those whiskey and beer allies of Mr. Stanley, who have no politics and who change from side to side as they please, may bolt. These men, now back of Mr. Stanley, are the men who aided in the election of Mr. W. O. Bradley, six years ago. Of course, they will bolt Mr. Beckham after the primary if they see a chance. But they know there is no chance. For every such bolter, Mr. Beckham will gain two votes from the Progressives and the Republicans, and the division of the opposition will make the success of the Democratic State ticket in November certain.

There is no need, therefore, of placing any stress upon Mr. Stanley's bitter attacks upon his own political party. Mr. Stanley is only a make-believe as a Democratic candidate. The whole object of his campaign is to make votes against the Democratic ticket after that ticket is nominated, but the result will prove that he has made votes for the Democratic ticket in November just as he has made votes for Mr. Beckham in the primary. —Louisville Post.

Stanley's Campaign Committee at Louisville elects him to the Senate daily, but the trouble with that is the people will refuse to ratify the action of that little bunch of credulous mortals who like the horsefly on the chariot wheel, think they are "it." —Park City (Bowling Green) Daily News.

"Daddy" Kirk has been in the habit of carrying two full jugs at all times balanced and upright. But on Wednesday morning, just before he crossed the footlog at Gander creek he stopped and took a big one, and that missing drink pulled him into the creek.

he could blow it.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

HIGH PRICES FOR BEEF

The following interview by the Leader with Col. Monte Fox, the leading buyer of fat cattle in the Blue Grass, will be read with interest by the farmers of Montgomery county. It says:
"Monte Fox, of Boyle county, who buys every year thousands of fancy beefs for New York parties, says there is a great scarcity of beef cattle, and that he would not be at all surprised to see 'feeders' selling at 8 cents a pound now that the rains have come and give good promise of grass and corn. For the uninitiated it may be stated that 'feeders' are young cattle that are put on feed and fattened for the following year's market. Fancy beefs are now bringing somewhere in the neighborhood of $8.50 per hundred pounds, which is a very substantial advance over the prices of a few years ago. Cattle on the hoof at $8.40 make sirloin steaks in New York cost about forty cents a pound at the butcher-er shops and about $26.65 on the swell hotel menus. Mr. Fox says that the low prices for beef cattle a few years ago led many farmers to quit feeding them and the stock ran down because so many cows and heifers went to the butchers. The breaking up of so much grass land for tobacco has also contributed to the shortage of cattle. Now that the prices are better the industry will be stimulated but naturally it will take two or three years to replenish the breeding stock.
Mr. Fox says there are now scarcely any fancy beefs imported from this country, but that a great deal of Argentine meat comes to the United States by way of London. This beef, he says, is not as good in quality as the domestic article and for that reason does not compete with the home beef at the best home and hotel tables, but is widely sold and undoubtedly keeps the price for the Blue Grass steer down lower than it would otherwise be."

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs.
Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework.
Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui.
It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.
